Prayer Bears Fruit! James 5:13-18

It's Prayer Month! For those who have joined us in the past, you can testify to how prayer has borne fruit in Iron Rose Sister Ministries, especially through this month we always set aside to focus on prayer. If this is your first time, welcome! We invite you to celebrate with us the ways that you have seen prayer bear fruit in your family, your church, your community, and in your own life.

In James chapter 5, we see a promise echoed that Jesus Himself established: "The prayer offered in faith will..." (Jas 5:15; Mt 7:8, 18:19). Inspired by our 2026 theme, "Bear Fruit" (Jn 15), we are coming together as one voice in faith to bring before God these areas that are on our heart as a ministry. We place them in God's hands, praying that His will be done and that our efforts bear fruit. Prayer bears fruit!

The admonition to "pray continually" (1Th 5:17) does not specify how we pray, therefore we can see this as an invitation to pray in a variety of ways on a variety of topics. The daily prompts in this calendar can be a helpful way to listen to God's heart (Bible verses referenced in the corner) and to join as one voice in these specific areas. Thank you for interceding on our behalf. Thank you for your partnership with us in prayer. In our prayers, we thank God for you and echo the prayers of thanksgiving we hear from equipped women across the Americas (2Co 1:11).

During this 2026 prayer month, we challenge you to pray boldly in faith. If you have a prayer to add to this list, let us know! Also, we love to hear the prayers the Spirit prompts you to say on our behalf! Please email us or give us a shoutout on social media with those prayers:

Suggestions for how to make best use of the Prayer Calendar:

- Pray for others and with others.
- Follow the Spirit's prompting to reach out to someone after your time of prayer. That's one way prayer bears fruit.
- Share this opportunity to pray with someone new. This is a great invitation to pray in community.
- Through prayer, pray that God will teach you to pray.
- Be open to learning new ways to pray.
