“Pray continually.” (1 Th. 5:17)

Commitment to prayer takes different forms through our time, focused attention, purpose, and direction. Prayer is not a checklist, but these daily prompts can be a helpful way to listen to God’s heart (Bible verses referenced in the corner) and to join as one voice in certain areas that are on our heart as a ministry.

Committed to Christ 24/7 in 2024 is a commitment to living as He lived and walking as He walked. In February, we are inspired by Christ’s commitment to prayer and thus to our relationship with the Father.

Prayer affirms intentionality of relationship with the One who has all power and authority, the One through whom we receive guidance and wisdom.

Thank you for your partnership with us in prayer, and for interceding on our behalf. In our prayers, we thank God for you and echo the prayers of thanksgiving we hear from equipped women across the Americas (2 Co. 1:11).

During this 2024 commitment to prayer, we encourage you to find someone else with whom to pray. We strengthen each other’s commitments when we pray together. And we love to hear the prayers the Spirit prompts you to say on our behalf!

Suggestions for how to make best use of the Prayer Calendar:

- Read the Bible verse as a prayer.
- Choose a specific individual, group, or facet of the day’s prayer prompt to pray over more specifically. Then, share that specific prayer with us! We love to hear from you!
- Pray for others and with others.
- Allow the Spirit to express a prayer on your behalf.
- Follow the Spirit’s prompting to reach out to someone after your time of prayer.
- Share this opportunity to pray with someone new. This is a great invitation to commit to prayer in community.
- Through prayer, pray that God will teach you to pray.
- Be open to learning new ways to pray.
