

FOLLOW-UP SURVEY QUESTIONS

---

1. *Have you completed the initial survey “Single and Lovin’ It, Mostly”?
Yes    No
2. *How would you like to register your answers?
Anonymously    With your name: _____
3. *In order to match your answers from the initial survey with your responses to the following questions, please provide us with your email address. Note: This does not affect whether or not your responses are shared anonymously.
Email address: _____
4. Please share a specific Bible verse that has encouraged you as a single woman.

Answers to this question were included in Section II, Chapter 8, “Reminders of Truth.”

5. What has your experience been with “Singles Ministry”?
6. Tell us a little about your story as a single woman.
7. If not mentioned specifically in the previous question, how have you served the Lord through your time as a single woman? Or how would you like to (through your gifts, talents, and experiences)?
8. FOR SINGLE WOMEN, NEVER MARRIED: Besides the need to get married, your status as a single woman, or other related remarks, what things would you like for people to discuss with you?
9. FOR SINGLE-AGAIN WOMEN: What help or support did you most need from others when you first became single again?
10. Any tips for other single women about how you have learned to remarks about “being single”?
11. *Are you still interested in being contacted in order to share more from your personal experience as a single Christian woman through a follow-up interview?
Yes    No

*Thank you for your participation! Your input is invaluable to this conversation.
Feel free to invite other single or single-again Christian women to participate in the initial survey.*

INTERVIEW QUESTIONS

---

1. Can you tell me a little about yourself? What three words best describe you? What's really important to being you?
2. Tell me a little about your story as a single woman.
3. Can you walk me through a specific story or experience that has made a significant impact on you as a single woman? (It's okay to share more than one.)
4. What effects have you experienced your singleness having on your relationship with God?
5. What has been your experience in relationships with other Christian women?
6. What has God said or taught you, or what direction has He led you, through your time as a single woman?
7. How have you been best supported you in your singleness—by individuals, by groups, inside or outside the church?
8. How can the church best be welcoming to single women?
9. Anything else you would like to add or wish that I had asked?